To the builders of our pathway

To our community—those who have whole-heartedly supported our school activities by their attendance at athletic events, plays, and music presentations; those who have made possible the publication of THE PIRATEER, the school paper, and this book, our annual, by subscriptions and advertisements, this, the 1957 MOO, is dedicated.

Without you, the people of our community, our education would not be of such a high standard.

As we the graduating class of 1957 dedicate this MOO to our friends and parents and supporters of our community, we promise to leave footprints that will be worthy of the faith and confidence of our community. May these footprints be big enough for those who are to follow in them

We record our progress

Plans for the 1957 Moo got under way when the advisor, Miss Stoner, and the executive staff, Ruth Bergmann, Verla Frahm, Dick Bagenstos, and Barbara Irwin, attended a yearbook clinic in Storm Lake in September. The information and ideas picked up there were brought back and transferred to the publishing of the best Moo possible.

Financing of the book was accomplished by selling subscriptions and sponsor lines in our own and neighboring communities. Assignments to write and type the stories and copy as well as to take and identify the pictures were given to willing and capable workers.

The seniors again decided to go into summer production with their book so that the entire story of the 1956-1957 school year could be told in story and pictures.

The freshmen take a rough detour of the freshmen rolled around September 7th. Each freshman was dressed to represent a movie or television star. The morning activities consisted of the judging of the costumes, paddles and impersonations along with eating onions, rolling mothballs with their noses, tossing eggs and scrubbing their confessions of love for the seniors from the bandstand with toothbrushes. No initiation would have been complete without the paddling line, corn starch and lipstick; so the freshmen had their formal introduction to it.

Initiation

The seniors sponsored a dance that evening where the freshmen had their first taste of high school social life and also performed a few more stunts for the delight of all. This first party of the year had an attendance greater than any since.

We have a pleasant interlude

The Homecoming festivities began on Thursday evening, October 25th. A program entitled "Off the Record" and presented by the vocal groups cleverly portrayed the records in the shop coming to life in song and dance. Following this excellent variety show came the most breath-taking event of the evening—the coronation.

The mixed chorus, garbed in blue choral robes and carrying lighted candles, lined the aisle which led to the stage. The Royalty proceeded down this aisle to the music of "Stardust" played by the Holstein High School Dance Band. The stage represented a beautiful blue heaven with silver stars twinkling in the background. As the Royalty ascended the stairway to this heaven, they reached a green carpet strewn with red roses and rose petals, in front of two white thrones. When the Royalty reached their places, Mr. Christie presented Queen Patsy Keitges with a bouquet of yellow and bronze mums. Miss Stoner then crowned the attendants, Margene Goettsch, Larry Leinbaugh, Verla Frahm and Don Fritz. Next, Mr. Christie crowned Pat and Patsy Keitges, the King and Queen of the 1956 Homecoming. After the coronation the mixed chorus sang the "Holstein Royalty Song" as the king, queen, and attendents left the auditorium.

To climax the evening the traditional bonfire was lighted and Kingsley was burned in effigy.

On Friday afternoon a parade was led by the Holstein High School Marching Band through town. Following the band were the four class floats and the three convertibles carrying the Royalty.

Friday evening the Homecoming was made complete with the winning of the Homecoming game.

"Look Out Lizzie" was presented by the junior class to a large audience on November 13. Hazel Long, the only child of a backwoods farmer, tires of country life, but her father refuses to move because he thinks some Eastern men are interested in a rock quarry which lies partly under his farm.

Hazel meets Richard Biltmore, a stranger from the city and they fall in love. Hazel gets her family to try to act like society people so they can receive Richard in style. To make matters more confusing, Minnie Hall, the neighborhood gossip, comes in and besides making a nuisance of herself, she reports the whole thing to all the neighbors.

Next morning Lizzie, the hired girl, and Richard are missing, and the whole country is up in arms. In the meantime Dave Hinkle comes to collect the mortgage on Long's farm. Richard, who is really a representative of a quarry company, returns and buys rights to the quarry, and Silas pays off the mortgage with the money. Richard marries Hazel and to make the ending complete Lizzie and Hank and Dave and Minnie also get married.

On April 9 the senior class presented the mystery-comedy, STRANGER IN THE NIGHT, which was aptly directed by Mr. Dale Rosenberg. The story of two girls who ran a book and gift shop took place in a small shop off the lobby of the Boulevard Hotel.

Sylvia Lee and Mabel Crane learn from the enterprizing young newspaper columnist, Grant Terry of a plot to murder someone in the hotel. Everyone thinks he is the intended victim.

Eddie Beach, the bellhop, believes he is the victim because he is in possession of a suitcase which Nona Pollard gave him. He thinks the suitcase contains stolen property but in reality it is Nona's hope chest.

Mable is positive she is the victim because she has taken Cliff Newkirk away from Sandra King, a lady wrestler, who is actually his aunt.

Velda believes she is to be murdered by a man to whom she was once engaged and who was involved in a blackmail plot. Now she is the secretary to J. T. Rutledge, a retired businessman.

Because she is the author of a book, How To Capture The Man of Your Choice, Sylvia is sure she is the victim. Rose Jordan insists her fears are foolish, but she refuses to be consoled.

Marcella Bender, the physical education teacher heightens the plot when she hires Sandra King, the lady wrestler to liven up her classes.

In the end Grant Terry captures the would-be murderer, Sam Fisk, and everyone is happy.

Some scenery with fond memories

April 22, 1957, marked the end of constant activity and busy preparations for the Juniors, and a night of fantasy for the gay but sentimental Seniors of Holstein High. Eight harem girls and servants escorted the guests into the splendor of "Kismet." These honored few were: Nancy Kelley, Nancy Kolb, Marilyn Christiansen, and Faye Janssen, Bob Kelley, Tom Keitges, Donald Butcher, and David Lohff.

A refreshing oasis of green grass, slender palms, and a cool, quiet pool greeted us as we passed through an archway of pale greens and browns. Separating it from the desert were large, stately pyramids. At the edge stood a magnificent palace, basking in a splash of sunlight.

Aladdin's golden lamp captured the center of the dance floor. Issuing from its spout was a misty vapor reflecting a myriad of colors. Magic carpets carrying their robed masters sailed serenely above.

Gratefully we turned to the massive Arabic tent, for here were found cool green punch and a variety of tasty snacks. Veiled slave girls hurried back and forth serving the tired dancers.

The dreamy music of the Bob Conley Combo drifted over the swaying couples from 9 until 12:30. During intermisson Margene Goettsch and Pat Keitges were crowned Queen and King of the 1957 Prom.

To the Juniors the Prom was a climax of a busy year of planning. To the seniors, it was the high point of four long and eventful years. As they drifted away from the glittering lights and gay decorations, each carried treasured memories to add to his chest of Pirate treasures . . . a highlight of H. H. S.

We move with lively step

Something new is added to H.H.S., a girls' pep council. Twelve members make up the council, four girls from each class. Of these twelve, one is chosen as the president and one as the secretary and treasurer.

It is the duty of the council to plan and to direct the pep activities so that they run smoothly.

Everyone in high school is made to feel a part of the planning and executing of the activities when they are asked to give help and suggestions to the members of the council when needed.

Some of the duties that this council has carried out are the following: planned the homecoming activities, sold school pencils, prepared a program for the undefeated football team, and planned a regular pep meeting each week.

We stop for information

For assignments or enjoyment the library is a high school necessity. The library proper is in a room adjoining the assembly. Two north windows overlooking the high school parking area provide natural illumination in addition to the florescent lights overhead. A long table surrounded by chairs gives a student opportunity to sit down and read or write.

In the library are books of adventure and romance, biographies and reference works.

Shelves in the front and rear of the assembly contain reference books of law, economics, the sciences, English, literature, history and general reference.

Approximately 3300 books of various shapes, sizes, and contents fill our library shelves. This year 50 new fiction books were added, enlarging the collection.

Two daily and one weekly paper are subscribed to by the school in addition to several magazines. These are available to the students at the reading table and stand at the front of the assembly. The librarians, under the direction of Miss Stoner carry out the library routines. Librarians: Mary Mohr, Kathleen Krull, Janice Leonard, Barbara Irwin, Ruth Bergmann, Julie Leonard.

Pirateer

For the second year under the name of Pirateer, our paper came out every two weeks with news and views of Holstein High.

Under the leadership of editors Julie Leonard and Rodson Ellerbusch we printed sixteen issues. Two of these, the Christmas and graduation issues, included two-page supplements.

Our staff included 47 students and two advisors, Miss Wilson and Mrs. Christie.

The staff covered such events as the All-State Music Festival, the basketball tournaments, Northwest Iowa Band, the Pirates' football season, music contests, and all other news events.

The Pirateer had a circulation, this year, of about 300 copies. Approximately 70 of these were mailed to advertisers and 17 to out of town subscribers.

in speech

Sixteen students entered in eighteen events in speech contest work this year. Since only three in each division may enter the contest from each school and there were seven contestants in Interpretative Reading, a home elimination contest was held in this division. The discontinuation of the preliminary contest led the remaining twelve students directly into the subdistrict contest at Moville, where they were entered in fourteen events: Radio Speaking, Rodson Ellerbusch, Julie Leonard, Richard Bagenstos; Oratorical, Mary Knuth, Bruce Schmidt; Original Oratory, Kathleen Krull, Barbara Irwin; Interpretative Reading, Nancy Henrichsen, Virgil Bumann, Janet Dittmer; Dramatic. The seniors go astray for a day

Skip Day

Early on the sunny, windy morning of May 7, thirty-seven seniors and the two sponsors, Miss Stoner and Mr. Gerber, boarded a chartered bus and headed for Omaha, Nebraska, for their annual Skip Day. The first stop was at Boys' Town. Some of the highlights of this stop were a fabulous coin and stamp collection, and a tour through all the various departments, which proved very enlightening. The seniors had planned to visit WOW-TV next, but complications arose and they were not admitted. By 11:40 they arrived downtown. The Brandeis Department Store provided a delicious lunch and a very informative tour through the behind-the-scenes section of the store. Their next stop brought them to the stock yards. Here they got a very good picture of how meat is processed. A bit later the group split up, some to go shopping, and some to visit radio station KOWH. Meeting at the Greyhound Bus Terminal, the seniors started their last lap, the trip home. By the close of the day the happy, but tired seniors had added another wonderful chapter to the story of their lives.

Two members of the Holstein Band were candidates for the Sioux City Mr. and Miss Band Day: Dick Bagenstos and Sally Blackmer, both making the top six.

After the football season, concert band members were then selected by Mr. Halvorsen. Four members from this band made All-State Band this year: Mary Knuth, Joanne Bye, Mary Jo DeWit, and Dianne Gellert. Seven members were selected for the Northwest Band: Dick Bagenstos, Jerry Jochims, Mary Jo DeWit, Nancy Kelley, Dianne Gellert, Louise Halvorsen and Diana Applegate.

The concert band gave a series of concerts this year. The first being the Student Assembly program. The second concert was the fifth Annual Pops Concert, held March 3rd with many visiting band directors and students as guests. The third was a Band Uniform Benefit concert, which was held March 17. The fourth concert was the Annual Spring Concert. The concert band also performed at the Christmas Program by playing "The Nutcracker Suite" by Peter Tschaikowsky as the opening number.

Continuing where they left off a year ago, HOLSTEIN'S BLACK PIRATES of 1956 went through undefeated for the second consecutive season. Favored against every opponent, the PIRATES withstood the pressure to gain second place among Iowa's Class II schools in a poll conducted by the DES MOINES REGISTER.

The PIRATESE with thirteen veteran lettermen back from last year won the annual season-opener with ALTA, 33 to 13. They then romped over both MOVILLE and ONAWA. 38 to 6 and 48 to 0 respectively.

In the DUNLAP game the PIRATES met the season's toughest opposition, but pulled out a 25 to 18 victory. IDA GROVE was the "big" game of the year, so the PIRATES were mentally and physically ready. They racked up a 34 to 13 win in a hard-fought ball game.

After trouncing CORRECTIONVILLE 47 to 13, the PIRATES disposed of KINGSLEY 48 to 18 in the homecoming game. MARCUS was turned back 41 to 6 and ODEBOLT walloped 49 to 6 in the season's finale to advance the PIRATES' winning streak to 22 in a row and cinch the MAPLE VALLEY CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Statistics compiled at the close of the season showed that a total of 4741 yards was gained on offense for an average of 12 yards for each of the 387 plays run from scrimmage. 4467 of these yards were acquired through rushing for an average of 12 yards for each of the 353 ground attempts. Passing accounted for the other 274 yards. The PIRATES completed 16 out of 34 or 47% of their passes. Average total offense per game was 526 yards per game in rushing.

In the DES MOINES REGISTER'S annual all-state high school football selections, edited by Jack North, Don Fritz was named on the first team. Larry Leinbaugh was chosen for a sixth team berth and Pat Keitges, Dick Schmidt and Jim Breyfogle received recognition by being named on the All-State Honor Roll. (Pictures below.)

BALL CARRIERS

FUTURE BALL CARRIERS

These "pony" backs took care of the ball-carrying assignments on the "B" squad with Breyfogle backing up the varsity line on defense.

Row 1: Bill Armiger and Albert Leonard.

GUARD JOBS

Guards Jim Breyfogle (155 lb. Sr.), Virgil Bumann, Don Clausen, Wendell Conover, and Ronald Meier (196 lb. Sr.) opened up the holes on offense and made sure the opponents did not go "up the gut" on defense.

QUARTERBACKING ASSIGNMENTS

Ball-handling responsibilities were effeciently carried out by these quarterbacks; Dan Sorensen, John Kolb, Dick Boothby (155 lb. Sr.), and Bob Kraai (180 lb. Soph.).

Piratette Champions

The PIRATETTES of 1956-57, with a veteran lineup back, finished a very successful season with a record of 24 wins and one loss. Although possessing only average height they pumped in 1604 points offensively, an average of 64.1 per game, while holding their opponents to 707, an average of 28.3 per game.

The Piratettes opened the season with easy victories over Aurelia, Galva and Anthon before meeting a rugged Albert City outfit in a clinic game. The Piratettes proved their determination by pulling out a 42 to 41 victory in the final seconds of that contest.

Menlo and Kingsley offered the strongest opposition in the remainder of the season schedule but the Piratettes' polished offense and brilliant defensive play turned back the opponents' bids.

The Piratettes claimed both the MAPLE VALLEY CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP and the MAPLE VALLEY TOURNAMENT crown.

On the climb up the tournament trail the Piratettes downed C'ville, Danbury and Moville to annex the sectional championship and gain a berth in the district tournament held in Sioux City. The Piratettes advanced to the finals of the district with wins over Kingsley and Moorhead before being stopped by a sharpshooting Ida Grove sextet in the finals, 59 to 70.

The fifteen young ladies above topped off a very fine eight-game season, winning eight out of eight games played. Their competition began with a game with Odebolt on November 19 and wound up on February 11 at Galva. Holstein scored a total of 387 points while holding their opponents to 243. The B gals have height, scoring punch, and a desire to play ball. They should give a good account of themselves when they step into the footprints of their predecessors.

Maple Champions

Group One (Above) Guards: Janice Leonard, Julie Leonard, and Verla Frahm. All seniors and a tough back-court combination. Scoring against them proved difficult. Rebounding good, and always brought that ball down to the forwards. Janice—fourth all-state team choice. Julie—honorable mention guard.

Group Two, Forwards: Bonnie Blackmer, junior, Patsy Keitges and Sally Blackmer, seniors. Lots of scoring power via jumpshots, scoops, lefthanded hooks and freethrows. The six forwards in groups 1 and 2 poured in 64 points per game. Late in the season Sally was converted to a post guard and there did a creditable job also. Sally—honorable mention guard, Patsy and Bonnie, honorabe mention forwards.

Group Three, Forwards: Joyce Scott, senior; Phyllis Vohs and Reta Scott, juniors. Joyce's speed and passing ability, Phyllis' work in the pivot spot and off the boards, and Reta's swishers from out front bolstered that offensive attack very nicely.

Group Four, Guards: Carol Boothby, Marjorie Schubert, juniors. Both girls saw action regularly, and their sound defensive work helped the regulars in group 1 to hold the opponents' scoring average down to 28 points per game.

Maple Artists

THE BLACK PIRATES finished the 1956-57 basketball season with an above average record of 11 wins out of 21 games. Averaging 5' 11" in height, the Pirates scored 1060 points to their opponents' 1018. In the Maple Valley Tournament the Pirates defeated Galva in the first round, but then were turned back by a fast-breaking Battle Creek ball club, 40 to 44. The Pirates finished second in the Maple Valley Conference race behind Battle Creek. In the first round of the sectional tournament held at Cherokee the Pirates met Aurelia and after a very even first half, 23 to 23, were put out of the running, 42 to 57.

They reached their 11th game before they met defeat at the hands of Alta contingent from Buena Vista county, to the tune of seven points. Next season should see a number of these boys giving a creditable account of themselves on the varsity squad.

The fall of the year found 35 freshmen beginning their high school career. And to become full-fledged students of H. H. S. they had to pass the ordeal of initiation which came on September 7. Dressed as stage celebrities, they took their initiation in good spirit and found it to be their highlight of the year.

Under the careful guidance of Mr. File and Mr. McKnight they began their adjustments to high school life. A large number entered extra-curricular activities. They topped the list for the number out for band and tied the sophomores for the number in football and boys' basketball.

In their Iowa State Tests they received a fine score, ranking above 90.5 of all other freshman classes in the nation who were tested.

Although the sophomores sometimes seem to be the most forgotten class in high school, this class definately made themselves a vital part of our high school.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Christie and Miss Wilson they became very active in sports, vocal groups, and instrumental music and they sponsored the traditional Christmas Party. The lunchroom was gayly decorated in Christmasy fashion and everyone said this was one of the nicest parties of the year.

As a class the sophomores ranked highest in the Iowa State Tests of all the Holstein classes. They outdid 99.3 of the rest of the sophomore classes in the nation.

Moving up another step on the ladder of learning, the juniors became an important part of Holstein High School. Under the sponsorship of Miss Vollstedt and Mr. Hughes, they excelled in activities such as sports, vocal groups, instrumental music, and speech work.

Encouraged and directed by Mr. Rosenberg, the juniors ventured into the dramatic field. "Look Out, Lizzie," a three-act comedy, was successfully presented on November 13 before an enthusiastic audience.

The highlight of the year will be, of course, the junior-senior prom which will take many long hours of tedious work but will afford treasured memories for many a year to come.

Not all of the school year is spent in extra-curricular activities though, and to prove that, the juniors, as a class, ranked above 98% of the rest of the junior classes in the nation in the Iowa State Tests of Educational Development.

And --- So Farewell

The end of this book marks the end of the old and the beginning of the new. As the seniors leave this school behind, their footsteps lead them down the path of the future. The footprints they leave in H. H. S. are a symbol of the knowledge they have gained in preparation for facing this new life.

The staff of this 1957 MOO extends its hearty thanks and gratitude to Miss Stoner and Mr. Gerber, whose aid and guidance played a vital role in this publication.

A Psalm of Life

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time;

Footprints that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing shall take heart again.
